UNWIELDY FIELDS IN EAST

SEVERAL RACES AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY WITH SUPERABUNDANCE OF STARTERS.

Best Horse Prevails in Each Instance, However—
Louise Welles Fails to Run Back to Her
Sensational Debut at Saratoga.

New York, September 7.—From the viewpoint of entries, today's card at Sheepshead Bay was the heaviest of the meeting. The first, second and sixth races were overabundant with starters, but notwithstanding the unwieldy fields, the best horses—Fountain Square, Queen Marguerite and Aronack—were respectively first at the finish. The last named, nearly left at the post, made a remarkable run to victory through the last quarter of the home stretch, coming from last place in the final sixteenth so swiftly and unexpectedly that not one spectator in five took cognizance of her advent on the scene of the finish. The Sapphire, for two-year-olds, was the principal feature programmed. A quintet of fast juveniles participated in this event, including Pretend, Billiard Ball, Little King, Sandrian and Louise Welles. On the strength of her sensational debut at Saratoga, Rome Respos's filly was made favorite in the betting ring. On the theory that one swallow does not make a summer, the local betting contingent played all around her in casting about for a winner and the result justified their judgment, as Louise Welles finished absolutely last, after having ruined the chances of more than one of her opponents. Respos's diminutive apprentice, E. Martin, dominated the running with his mount until she was exhausted. Then he pulled the whip and, with flapping lines, the filly ran amuck, inflicting considerable damage to the horses outside of her. Billiard Ball, most seriously affected by the interference, subsequently fell a victim to the heavily served Pretend, which drew out in the final sixteenth to win going away. Sandrian was also a sufferer from Louise Welles' defection from a straight course, being impeded so abruptly that his jockey was compelled to pull him up.

Jockey Grey's ride on the grass course, winner of the handicap at a mile and an eighth, was marked by extraordinary patience. Because of the slow early pace, which placed Norbit at a great disadvantage, the race resolved itself into a final quarter of a mile sprint, in which the Montreiller horse was particularly well served. Arcite, the only other contestant, ran poorly enough to suggest absolute unfitness for starting. The betting truthfully reflected his lack of condition.

The defeat of Nimbus, over the grass course, furnished the first big upset of the meeting. George Odum's gelding was backed for large sums at odds of 1 to 4, as he seemed a certainty. Gliding Belle was able to maintain such close and persistent pursuit of his fast pace that he weakened in the final strides and allowed the Schulte filly to get up to win by the narrowest of margins. Goldfinch and Orphan Lad were beaten off from the first.

Weather and track conditions were perfect for this time of the year and despite the off-day character of the card the attendance was good.

Another large force of extra plain clothes men, thirty-four in number, was on hand, but, as on previous occasions, no violation of the betting rules was discovered and they had little to do. The Ostene night-riding incident was still the subject of gossip. One story had it that the arrested men have confessed. Another report is that the price received by the miscreants was $50 apiece.

WHITNEY WINS RACE AT DONCASTER.

London, Eng., September 7.—H. P. Whitney's Top of the Morning won the Glasgow Nursery Plate of 250 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, distance five furlongs, at Doncaster today. Photine was second and J. R. Keene's Suffragist was third. Among the nineteen starters was August Belmont's Fond Memories.

The Champagne Stakes of 30 sovereigns each, with 1,000 sovereigns added, for two-year-olds, distance five furlongs and 152 yards, was won by Neil Gow. Admiral Hawke was second and Lemberg third. Four horses ran, the unplaced one being H. P. Whitney's Whisker.

Gallot won the Fitzwilliam Selling Plate of 5 sovereigns each, with 200 sovereigns added, for all ages, distance three-quarters of a mile. Gallot Along was second and H. P. Whitney's Bobbin third. Nine ran.

The Doncaster Welter-Handicap Plate of 400 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upward, distance one mile, was won by Arranmore, with Torbay second and H. P. Whitney's Dinna Ken third. There were thirteen starters.

SANFORD HORSES REACH NEW YORK.

New York, September 7.—Twenty-two horses of various ages belonging to General Stephen Sanford, of Amsterdam, have arrived from Saratoga. They are destined for the sales ring at Sheepshead Bay Thursday. General Sanford does not apparently intend to race any horses hereabouts this fall. H. H. Hyner, the man who developed his string and took it to Saratoga, has given up his job and no one has been appointed to succeed him. The good two-year-olds, Herkimer and Baron Dieskau, are not in the lot General Sanford has consigned to the Fasig-Tipton Company. General Sanford has decided to keep them for next season on the theory that they will make good as three-year-olds. Danoscara is not to be sold, of course. She is one of the best bred mares General Sanford owns and she is destined for service at Hurricane Stud.

GOVERNOR HUGHES INVESTIGATING.

New York, September 7.—To investigate reports made to him that the Hart-Agnew law was being flagrantly violated at Sheepshead Bay, Governor Hughes dispatched four personal representatives to the track for the purpose of observing conditions as they actually exist. The governor's representatives, it is said, have so far failed to discover the recording of any bets or any other violations of the law alleged in the complaint made.

RACING IS TAKING AT VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, B. C., September 7.—Racing is taking splendidly here. The attendance is exceeding the fondest hopes of the management, and eighteen books are having plenty of business. G. H. Keene and W. E. Applegate, Jr., are among the layers in line. C. T. Henshall has the field book and grandstand betting privileges and is finding them profitable.

COLONEL MILTON YOUNG LEASES NEALON.

Lexington, Ky., September 7.—Colonel Milton Young has leased the Sain stallion, Nealon, from Barney Schreiber and will resume the breeding business. He is greatly impressed with the improved condition of racing, and from the sale of his own yearlings and those of others he believes racing will soon be on a better footing than ever before.

PLAUDIT ARRIVES FROM FRANCE.

New York, September 7.—J. E. Madden's stallion, Plaudit, arrived at Gravesend this afternoon. Plaudit left France August 28 and was taken off the steamer this morning in perfect physical condition.

THIS IS ST. LEGER DAY OVER IN ENGLAND

This is a great racing day in England. The one hundred and thirty-fourth St. Leger is to be run over the broad expanses of the Doncaster Town Moor and King Edward and everyone else who can will be there to see it. The St. Leger is the oldest of the classics of the English turf, having first been run three years earlier than the first Oaks and seven years earlier than the first Epsom Derby. It is of the same value as the Derby, each being now guaranteed races at 6,500 sovereigns, or approximately $32,500. The St. Leger run over a course that is officially described as being of "about one mile, six furlongs and 132 yards." It is not only a big thing in a racing way to all England, but it is an especially big thing to the town of Doncaster, which owns the race track, furnishes the money to be run for, takes all the receipts and derives an ample profit from the racing, which is applied to defrayment of the various corporate expenses of the town.

The St. Leger of the present year is, by common consent, deemed a three-horse race, with Bayardo, Minerva and Louviers deemed almost sure to be placed horses, but this will not prevent eight or ten more from going to the post, one of which will probably be Mr. Keene's American-bred chestnut colt, Esperanto, by Disguise—Anomaly. Like all other races, the St. Leger has been marked by stunning surprises to over-confident backers of what seemed public form, but it hardly seems probable that anything of the sort will occur this year. The most experienced judges hold that Bayardo will win, the only qualification being that in some quarters doubt is expressed as to his staying the route, this being based on his breeding instead of anything that has cropped up in his racing. He has a formidable opponent in King Edward's Derby winner, Minerva, which colt, from all accounts, is thriving lustily and is as good as one of the foremost trainers of the world can make him. In fact, one thing that must conduce to a capital race is the remarkably good condition and health of all of the probable St. Leger starters. At latest advices Bayardo was an even money favorite, with Minerva second choice at 3 to 1 and sixteen horses were expected to start. The record of this great race for the last twenty years is as follows:

WINNERS OF THE GREAT FILLY STAKES

Stakes for fillies exclusively have always been of moderate value as compared with those for both sexes. In an effort to provide one for two-year-old fillies that should rank with the greatest events of each year the Coney Island Jockey Club founded the Great Filly Stakes. At first its purpose was realized, its first winner gaining the big sum of $22,975 for her owner. But since then, for one reason and another, the Great Filly has declined in value until this year only approximately $7,000 was to be the winner's portion, not at all bad in these days of decreased values, but slight when compared with the sums that have fallen to other winners of the event. In its first running, bookmaker L. M. Myers' filly, Leonora Loring, won narrowly from W. C. Whitney's Blue Girl, but a protest was lodged on the ground of incorrect entry under the rules and a day or two after the race it was announced that the protest was good. Leonora Loring was disqualified and Myers, who needed the money, had to endure the anguish of seeing his pass to Whitney, who did not need it. It was one of the most notable cases of disqualification in American turf history. The record of the race is as follows:

Year.	First.	Jockeys.	Wt.	Second.	Wt.	Third.	Wt.	Val.	Time.
1901	Blue Girl	Shaw	124	Sun Shower	114	Par Excellence	116	$23,975	1:14 1/2

*Leonora Loring finished first, but was disqualified.

MATT WINN IS ENTHUSIASTIC.

Louisville, Ky., September 7.—Matt J. Winn, general manager of the New Louisville Jockey Club, who has just returned from Juarez, Mex., is enthusiastic regarding the outlook for winter racing in Mexico. He would not have come to Louisville at this time except that his services are required in the preparation of the details for the coming meeting at Churchill Downs, which begins on September 25 and ends on October 9. Mr. Winn says these thirteen days of racing will furnish splendid sport, and that an attractive program will be prepared.

D. X. Murphy, architect of the new racing plant at Juarez, returned north with Mr. Winn. The latter said of his trip: "We spent most of the month of August at Juarez. The construction work on the new race track there is about half completed, and everything is working as smoothly as possible. Messrs. Murphy, Pollanshee and myself are all much impressed with the outlook, and the track will undoubtedly be one of the finest in the country. It is being built like the famous Santa Anita course in California, and when it is finished I believe it will be one of the most beautiful plants in this country."

"I am sure that racing in Mexico will prove a success. The people all over that country are sportively inclined, and I must say we were splendidly treated wherever we went, both by the government officials and the citizens. We were practically met with open arms, and almost every concession asked was granted. The country around Juarez and El Paso is thickly populated, and besides I expect thousands of lovers of the thoroughbred horse in the north and middle west to attend this meeting. We will open the sport on Thanksgiving day with a handicap that should attract some of the best horses in training in this country."

"I cannot say much regarding the coming meeting at Churchill Downs, because I have just arrived. I do know, however, that all of the eastern horsemen who attended the meeting at the Downs this spring will return for the fall meeting. They promised me this at Empire City track. I expect also many additions from the eastern contingent. We will have thirteen days of the sport here, and there will be a handicap each day. Secretary Lyman Davis has been attending to the details, and I am sure that he has done his work well."

"I will begin work at once on the stakes for the Juarez meeting. The stakes will be of the value of $1,000 and $2,000 each and the overnight handicaps will be valuable. We will have a double line of street car tracks to the course, and spectators can ride from the principal hotel in El Paso to the track in fifteen minutes. We will have a mile chute and a half-mile chute, and I know horsemen will be pleased with the course."

BREAKING THE THOMAS YEARLINGS.

New York, September 7.—Henry McDaniel has ceased to be a trainer of race horses and has become a breaker of yearlings. The mature campaigners of R. L. Thomas' establishment are so fagged out that McDaniel has given up trying to do anything with them. He is devoting almost all his attention to the eighteen juveniles, that will not be ready to race until after January 1. McDaniel gave an average price of $1,000 per head for eighteen colts and fillies for Thomas. He is confident that there are one or two cracks in the lot.

THE LOTTERY OF HORSE BUYING.

New York, September 7.—The careers of Ostend and Lexington furnish an illustration of the chancy character of horse trading. Ostend and Lexington were in California last winter under the charge of Peter Wimmer. John Madden owned them and, acting on his order, Wimmer sold them to Walter House. House's banker paid $1,500 for Lexington, a maiden of apparently little account, and $500 for Ostend. He did not want to take Ostend at any price. Ostend has won four straight races and is considered one of the best second-rate youngsters in the country.

CHANDLER STUD GOES TO FRANCE.

New York, September 7.—William Astor Chandler apparently has developed a desire to race in France. He will at once transfer to the European Republic his entire stud, which is now domiciled at Walker Jennings' old farm in Loudoun County, Virginia, near the town of Leesburg. Mr. Chandler's stud consists of the Domino—Belle of Maywood stallion, Olympian, and thirteen mares. One of the mares is Salama, a daughter of Himyar and dam of no less distinguished a racer than Waldo. Mr. Chandler purchased Salama last year for a mere song before anybody knew anything about Waldo. Olympian is one of the best-looking stallions of the family of Domino in America. He was a two-year-old with Commando, Cap and Bells, Conroy and Tommy Atkins, and he acquired some distinction by being placed in the Futurity. But, notwithstanding he was a brother to Tenny, Olympian never became a great race horse. Mr. Chandler apparently thinks that he will breed on. Olympian stood a season at Dr. James Kerr's Stud in Virginia before Mr. Chandler established him in Loudoun County, and there will be some two-year-olds by him out next season.

BETTER PURSES IN SIGHT IN EAST.

New York, September 7.—Secretary Edwards of the Metropolitan Jockey Club was at Sheepshead Bay yesterday and he surveyed the big crowd with keen satisfaction. "This looks good for racing," Edwards remarked. "It's like an old-time Sheepshead Bay crowd. Take it from me, the sport is all right again, and let the horsemen know that we are going to do all we can for them at Jamaica later on. We don't expect to make any money. We are going to give a $2,500 handicap the first day and $1,500 handicaps each Saturday. In our minor races we will put up as much money as we possibly can and try to distribute it so that everybody will get a share."

Schuyler Parsons, president of the Coney Island Jockey Club, says that the attendance at Sheepshead Bay has been so good the club will not lose money. If things continue to improve, Mr. Parsons says all the metropolitan associations will advance purses.

COLSTON ENTHUSIASTIC OVER WALDO.

New York, September 7.—Raleigh Colston, trainer of Waldo, maintains that the winner of the Flatbush is one of the speediest colts he has ever seen. "People think," said Colston, "that he is a slow beginner. That is a mistake. He is slow if his rider is slow, but if the rider is alert and active, he is responsive. He doesn't seem to have a nerve in him. Just what you make him do is what he does, and, at that, there is no need to whip him. I don't think any horse that ever wore hair can outrun him. There is not a horse in any stable that can work with him. He can show you three-eighths in 34, any time you want him to. In my opinion he should never have been beaten in any race in which he started."

AN EVIDENCE OF IMPROVEMENT.

New York, September 7.—As an evidence of the improvement in turf conditions, Thomas C. McDowell calls attention to the fact that a year ago Sanford Lyne purchased six weanlings by Yorkshire Lad at Milton Young's dispersal sale for $735, and that Saturday, at the Sheepshead Bay paddocks, the six youngsters, as yearlings, brought $5,900.

KENTUCKY BREEDERS RETURN HOME.

Lexington, Ky., September 7.—Colonel Milton Young, Major T. J. Carson, G. D. Wilson, Sanford C. Lyne, D. H. Chenaunt, J. B. Viley, Sidney Bedford, John H. Morris, T. J. Clay and other Kentucky breeders who sold their yearlings at Sheepshead Bay last week, returned here yesterday well satisfied with the general results of the sales.

COLONEL JOT STAKE WINNER

OUTSIDER IS SUCCESSFUL IN THE HURON AT BLUE BONNETS TRACK.

Deceptive Going Makes Picking of Winners Difficult for Montreal Public—Hasty Agnes Vanquishes Lawrence P. Daley and Others in Handicap.

Montreal, Que., September 7.—The Huron Stakes, for two-year-olds, which featured today's card at Blue Bonnets, proved a rattling contest and aroused considerable enthusiasm. The nine starters at one period of the running were in almost perfect alignment and continued so for nearly a sixteenth of a mile before spreading out. The finish resulted in a half-length victory for the fast-closing Colonel Jot, which came with a cyclonic rush through the final three-sixteenths, after having been a distant trailer in the early stages. Puka beat infection handily for second money. Because of fast trials and previous good showings, Alfred the Great was considered best of the starters, and he encouraged his backers by leading at a fast pace for the first half mile, but he retired after straightening away for the stretch drive.

Fine weather brought another big attendance and the different races furnished better sport than had been anticipated. The deceptive going, however, made the picking of winners a difficult proposition. The handicap at seven-eighths, in which only four started, with Lawrence P. Daley regarded best, was taken by Hasty Agnes. She showed the most speed from the start, but began tiring near the end, and Royal Onyx almost got up to beat her. Lawrence P. Daley ran disappointingly and finished far back, principally because of bad handling.

The steeplechase over the long course was a spectacular duel between Imperpertence and Caloorahatchee for the first ten jumps, but thereafter Imperpertence drew away, only to make a bad landing and unseat her rider at the fourteenth jump. Imperpertence's elimination made it easy for Byzantine to rush into the lead and win as his rider pleased from the outsider. Caloorahatchee, Vaquero, a strongly supported second choice, was never a serious contender, but landed third by virtue of Imperpertence's mishap.

Sam Louis' Kid repeated his clever victory at Fort Erie by surrending a good hand in the opening race, in which he ruled favorably.

The second race attracted unusual interest from the fact that all the starters were Quebec-owned and mostly locally. It resulted in a victory for Adoration, with Martha Jane second and Silk Hose third. Blatant, Martha Jane, Blatant and colored Lady, though owned by different interests, had to be grouped in the betting because of being trained by A. Bulcroft. In the closing dash Goss Fast, the favorite, was beaten in the last few strides by Woolsthorpe. Jockey H. H. Schellie, on the former, lodged a claim of foul against the winner, but the stewards would not allow it.

Jockey J. Reid's apprentice allowance expired today.

F. T. Chinn purchased the horse Mazuma from J. Hewitt today.

Brunhilde, which started in the opening race, made her first appearance under colors since she was cut down at Latonia. She favored the injured leg somewhat.

Edward Tribe, who is assisting trainer Dade here, will leave on Thursday next for Denver, Col., to do the starting at the coming meeting at Overland Park.

Jockey E. Taplin has fully recovered from his illness and resumed riding today. He has several engagements for tomorrow.

COMMENT ON LATONIA AFFAIRS.

Cincinnati, O., September 7.—"One of the leading stockholders of the Latonia Jockey Club, in an interview, stated some time ago there would be a shake-up before the fall session, and that a new presiding judge and starter would be seen when the gates opened," says the Enquirer. "It was also intimated that there would be a change in the control of the track. The movement to get new blood infused into the management of the track may be going on, but up to the present no plans have been given out. It has evidently dawned on the turf magnates hereabouts that the time has arrived when the public wants to see the turf in different hands. The day for coining money with a racing plant is about over. The men who squeezed the game for all that was in it are not wanted. The public wants to patronize the game, but wants the money to go to men who are in the game for the sport itself. This country is getting toward the way when a race track must represent something to the community. A certain percentage of the receipts will go into the state fund and take some of the burden off the taxpayer. This, in connection with limited meetings, will cut deep into the profits and not make a race course something akin to a gold mine. The French law, which declares only a small dividend to be declared, the excess in profits to go to the purses and stakes of the next meeting, is a good one, and makes the operating of race tracks in France a real sport, and not, like in this country, a business."

TIMBERLAND FARM'S NOTED FOALS.

Lexington, Ky., September 7.—Candle, the dam of Candeberly, was in charge of Thomas R. Gardner, proprietor of Timberland Farm, in Kentucky, when mated with Ben Brush. Candle was then the property of Messrs. Lakeland and Powers and was being kept at Timberland Farm. They, however, sold the mare before foaling time to Andrew Miller of the Millstream Stud, Domino, Electioneer and Tommy Atkins are among the noted horses foaled at Timberland Farm.

KENTUCKY COMMISSION TO MEET.

Lexington, Ky., September 7.—The State Racing Commission will meet here tomorrow noon. The New Louisville Jockey Club will probably be granted the dates of September 25 to October 9 for its fall meeting. Among the matters to be considered is the controversy between R. L. Thomas and Irving H. Wheatcroft over Jockey Shilling.

BIG PROFIT ON BARGAIN YEARLING.

The first weanling sold at Colonel Milton Young's dispersal sale last October was a chestnut colt by Woolsthorpe, Ada B., and O. H. Chenaunt, the purchaser at $175. At Mr. Chenaunt's sale of yearlings last Thursday in New York the Woolsthorpe—Ada B. colt went to the Chelsea Stable for $2,600. It proved a pretty good investment for Mr. Chenaunt.

CHARACTERISTICS OF TURF STAR.

The speedy two-year-old, Turf Star, which has just changed hands in the east, is a compactly made, sturdy filly by Nasturtium, out of More Than Queen. She does not look like the conventional Nasturtiums, which is to say she is not big, soft nor flashy. Nor does she run like one. She has a high turn of speed, but it is not necessary to take her to the front. She will run from behind under the whip.

GOSSIP OF KENTUCKY FARMS.

Louisville, Ky., September 7.—Martin Doyle, the Paris, Ky., turfman, from whose breeding farm in Bourbon county has come many fine race horses, including Sister Mary, Belle's Commoner and Debar, will have quite a stake in the coming season, having just had shed at his Sister Mary stock farm six yearling colts, which will be sent within the next few weeks to the Kentucky Association track at Lexington to be handled and trained. They are:

Bay colt by Killarney—Miss Ross.
Chestnut colt by Stalwart—Mary Callahan.

Chestnut colt by Stalwart—Young Thule.
Brown colt by Knight Errant—Margaret Roche.

Another firm whose colors will be seen on the turf next season are the Young brothers, a member of which is a well-known Louisville attorney, Archibald H. Young, his partner being W. C. Young, who resides on their breeding farm near Christianburg, Ky. They have recently decided they would retain the yearling chestnut filly by Pirate of Penzance—Catherine of Navarre (sister of Henry of Navarre), for the stud, and as a result they will have her trained and raced before retiring her for breeding. This filly is a sister of Lady Navarre, and in color and general conformation is the counterpart of her noted sister. Messrs. Young will nominate their promising filly in many important events, both of 1910 and 1911. She is a good looker and has shown up well in early trials.

Henry Simmons is at Churchill Downs from Henderson with his Hamburg gelding, Pegasus, and what he has to say about his experience there would not look as well in print. While in that section of the state, however, he decided the two horses he has been training for Jake Greenburg, a two-year-old filly by Billet Deux and a three-year-old gelding, Louis Greenburg. The sale of this pair puts Jake Greenburg out of the thoroughbred business for the present, he having last fall sold all his brood mares to a firm of Lexington buyers. Greenburg lost interest in the thoroughbred horse business when his son died, the latter having been an enthusiastic horseman and looking after all the Greenburg thoroughbreds.

The ten fillies that M. H. Tichenor, the Chicago horseman, purchased of J. E. Madden in December, 1908, as yearlings were sold in Mexico by Tichenor, and some of them will race there during the coming winter. In the collection was a sister of Edward, the colt that the English sportsman, Louis Winans, purchased when he bought Sir Martin for export, and in fact the entire collection were well bred.

Alf V. Oldham of this city, has a coming weanling by his old campaigner, Colonel Jim Douglas, that he hopes he can win a Kentucky Derby with when the youngster is old enough to race in the Louisville blue ribbon event. It is the only foal of 1909 by Colonel Jim Douglas, as that horse was mated to but one mare in 1908, the dam of this youngster is Trixie O., by Pirate of Penzance. The old horse is now in training in John Rodage's barn at the Kentucky Association track at Lexington, and if Rodage can get him ready he will do some racing with him at the coming fall meeting of the New Louisville Jockey Club. The son of Henry Young has not started since the 1908 spring meeting at Churchill Downs. He was not trained last spring and Oldham as a consequence allowed eight mares to be mated to him. The Louisville turfman believes he will make a successful sire.

JAMES MCCORMICK'S GERMAN SUCCESSES.

James McCormick, of Alcedo and Hermis fame, is the leading winning trainer in Germany. Up to date he has won nearly $100,000 with the horses of Baron Oppenheim and other German sportsmen. With a horse called For Ever he won the Hamburg Prize, worth 100,000 marks, and the Berlin Prize of 74,000 marks. Willie Shaw rode the winner in both races. At Baden-Baden, between the Sundays, August 22 and August 23, McCormick sent down old Tiding and won three races with him, all over the "about nine furlongs" course. Shaw rode Tiding in the first race and the Germans laid 2 to 1 against him. In the second, with the English boy, Warner, he was 2 to 1 in the third, under the same rider, the odds were 5 to 1 on Tiding. The hangings—Fulite horse, now five years old, was pretty smart when fit as a three and four-year-old in this country. McCormick took him over to Germany with him and sold him to Mr. Galos but retained him in his stable.

YEARLING SALES ALL BUT OVER.

New York, September 7.—With the exception of the thirty-five head to be disposed of at the dispersal sale of the Chinn & Forsyth stable next Saturday, the fall yearling sales are over. The results have been highly satisfactory and furnish a pleasing index of the rehabilitation of racing. The Islingtons that were sold yesterday are the last crop but one of the get of that stallion, which H. T. Oxnard imported from England at the death of his breeder, Captain McCalmont of the British army. Islington dropped dead at Mr. Oxnard's Blue Ridge Stud in Virginia last year. The Ormondale Stud yearlings by Indeflexible, that were sold yesterday, were uniformly of large size, averaging more in weight than any that have come to the eastern sales this year. The Adam—Roman Gold colt for which J. Dyment secured $30,000 is a giant in stature, but is 15 hands 1 inch tall and singularly well proportioned.

A complete summary of the sale of the St. James Stock Farm yearlings, the property of I. H. Wheatcroft, at Sheephead Bay Friday, is as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Dainty's first foal is a finely developed chestnut, greatly resembling his dam.

Dalmatian, S. C. Hildreth's good Ethelbert colt, cannot be made to work well for his races.

The recent educational meeting at Reno, Nev., was conducted at a loss of $2,500, according to reports from the west.

Thomas Welsh will next year handle only the horses of the Newcastle Stable and some two-year-olds for Charles Belmont.

Charles Dixon, who at one time laid odds on the California tracks, was arrested at San Francisco a few days ago, charged with violation of the law.

R. F. Carman is now the owner of nineteen yearlings, and he will not take them to California, as has been his custom. He will break them at once and send them into winter quarters in the east. Mr. Carman is planning on spending the winter in Europe.

The St. Louis plan of Judge Murphy is one that will have to be followed at Chicago before any more moves to revive the racing game there are tried. The day of the old-time way of running race tracks must come back, when the men behind the state, who are not for the sport and not for the dollars that can be grabbed off at the gate and from the betting ring—Cincinnati Enquirer.

VANDERBILT HORSE FINISHES THIRD.
